Guidelines for All Paintings Submitted for Judging or Sale

- Painting boundaries: All painting should take place in Kane County. You are encouraged to paint anywhere along the Fox River, in our beautiful parks or in downtown St. Charles, Geneva and Batavia which all enjoy interesting architectural buildings. Kane County is also home to beautiful horse farms, a Japanese Garden, unique houses and prairie land.
- In the spirit of plein air, 95% of each painting must be created on site. No painting from photographs or from images on mobile devices, even on location
- Up to 4 images may be submitted for judging for awards
- Media may include: oil, acrylic, watercolor, pastel or gouache
- Each work submitted must be framed. Maximum frame width: 4 ¼ inches
- Maximum mat width (mat is optional): 4 inches
- Unframed dimensions will be accepted up to 324 sq. inches. As a guideline, this will accommodate standard painting sizes up to 16 x 20 inches or 18 x 18 inches
- Paintings must be securely wired for hanging; no alligator hangers
- All paintings must be date stamped at event check-in. Stamp must be visible on the back of each painting
- Artists will provide a submission form for each painting submitted (also included in Artist Packet) with artists name, title or location of painting, medium, and price. Filling cards out ahead of time will make the process go more smoothly – thank you!
- Prices may not be changed after submission, and there will be no negotiating prices at the sale
